

DYLAN ATWAL

Architecture Student

CONTACT

dylansinghatwal@outlook.com

07864 676 491

Website: dylansinghatwal.com

EDUCATION

2024

Loughborough University - BArch Architecture 2nd Year

Modules:

- Design Studio B
- Advanced Design Skills
- Critical Theory
- Advanced Technical Investigations
- Design In Context

2020

Tudor Grange Academy Solihull years 12 - 13:

- Psychology A+
- Business A
- Product Design B

DESIGN RELATED EXPERIENCE & AWARDS

Logo Designer - Fiverr - Remote work

April 2020 - October 2021

Working alongside clients to gain an understanding of their business and what they want from their logo. Designs are sent to the client at different intervals for approval, amendment or feedback before the finished product is agreed. I feel it is imperative to have the clients input throughout the journey as the logos are now becoming their biggest advertisement on websites invoices business cards and clothing.

Winner of Design Competition - Visus Street

I co-operated with fellow peers and won the highest vote in a design competition for a primary school learning space, I was head of visualisations and CAD work, utilising SKP and TwinMotion a detailed walkthrough of my work can be viewed on my website

Product Champion Award - Creynolds House

I won 1st place in the school for my Product Design work, designing a sustainable home in the local area. My physical model was displayed many times to prospective Product design students. This high end home was the very start of my journey into architecture prior to any studies, an indepth walkthrough can be viewed on my website

Collaborative skills - StellArchitects Studio

Whilst working in a large team project I put my best skills to use I was head of visual production work for StellArchitects for me this project was a great achievement as I also contributed to CAD work gaining skills in Revit software

OTHER EXPERIENCE & AWARDS

Sales Assistant - Hall Green Foods - Birmingham

January 2021 - Present

My responsibilities grew vastly whilst working part time during my education, I went from initial shop floor work to reorganising zones throughout the store helping to achieve higher sales. I have also been put in charge of managing and coaching new employees, cashing and managing the tills and admin responsibilities. During this journey I have consistently provided attentive and courteous customer service which has been picked up by both my employer and customers. I feel the job has given me great opportunity to grow as an individual helping me to mix with different people of all ages.

Language Leader Award

I conducted and planned lessons for large classes of younger students improving their Spanish and keeping them engaged with their studies

References upon request

